

Video transcript

My name is Emma. I currently work in the council's Legal team. I started with the council about five years ago as an apprentice in the Learning and Development team. The best thing about my apprenticeship was gaining valuable work experience whilst doing the qualification and this has led me to get the job where I am now.